INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL INDEX

HILL DIRECTORY COMPANY, publishers of Southeastern Directories (publishers of the Winston-Salem Directory since 1932), presents to subscribers and the general public, this, the 1966-67 edition of the Winston-Salem City Directory. (In all, the Hill Directory Company and its affiliated companies publish more than 1,400 city, county, state and national Directories).

Confidence in the growth of Winston-Salem's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting Winston-Salem to the world.

The enviable position occupied by HILL'S Directories in the estimation of the public, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional men and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the Winston-Salem Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the city.

Four Major Departments

The four major departments are arranged in the following order:—

I. THE BUYERS' GUIDE constitutes the first major department of the Directory, printed on yellow paper. In the first section of this department grouped under appropriate headings, are included the advertisements and the business cards of firms and individuals desiring to make a complete presentation of their products or services. Following this is the Classified Business section, which embraces a list of the names and addresses of all business and professional concerns of the city, arranged in alphabetical order under appropriate headings—a catalog of all the activities of the city. The Buyers' Guide represents reference advertising at its best, and merits the attention of all buyers and sellers seeking sources of supply or markets for goods. In a busy and diversified city like Winston-Salem, the necessity of having this kind of information up-to-date and always immediately available, is obvious. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller, and plays an important role in the daily activities of the commercial, industrial and professional world.

II. THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents and business and professional concerns, is the second major department, printed on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of Winston-Salem, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation in the city.

III. THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE is the third major department, printed on green paper. In this section the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of owner-occupied homes, the listing of telephone numbers and Zip Code numbers.

IV. THE NUMERICAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY is the fourth major department, printed on blue paper.

Municipal Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the city, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of Winston-Salem.

The Winston-Salem Out-of-Town City Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the Winston-Salem City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in the offices of the Greater Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, for free reference by the general public. This is one of more than 1,000 Directory Libraries installed in cities and towns throughout the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico by members of the Association of North American Directory Publishers, under whose supervision the system is operated.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional men who have demonstrated their confidence in the city Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

WINSTON-SALEM

CITY OF CULTURE, HISTORY AND INDUSTRY

History

Rich and varied is the history of Winston-Salem, for the city of today is the product of two centuries of constructive, planned growth.

In 1752-53, a small group of Pennsylvania Moravians, a Protestant denomination of Bohemian origin, carefully selected and bought a large tract of land in Piedmont Carolina at the three forks of the Yadkin River. They named the tract "Wachovia" after the Austrian estates of Count Nicholas Louis von Zinzendorf, an early protector-patron of the sect. Two settlements were established, Bethabara in 1793 and Bethania in 1759. In 1766 a new settlement was carefully laid out in the center of the Wachovia tract and built according to definite plans. The tranquility-loving Moravians named their new town Salem, meaning "peace."

The small town grew rapidly under the care of the industrious fathers. A water system was established and dwellings, stores, and shops built. Tobacco was even then an important crop. The fathers consecrated a graveyard, "God's Acre," and founded a girls' school which has developed into the Salem Academy and College of today.

The Revolutionary War brought to the thriving town Nathanael Greene's soldiers, and in 1781 Cornwallis passed through Salem. The years after the war until the middle of the 19th Century were marked by such events as the establishment of the Nissen Wagon Co. in 1787; a visit from George Washington in 1791; the dedication of the Home Moravian Church in 1800; the first edition of Blum's Almanac in 1828; and the opening of the first bank in 1847. Cotton and wool manufacturing companies had been organized, and Salem by 1850 was a prosperous center of religion, learning and industry.

By an act of legislature in 1849, Forsyth County was created from Stokes County. The county seat was established one mile north of Salem Square. In 1851, again by act of legislature, the new county seat was named "Winston" in honor of Major Joseph Winston, Revolutionary War hero. Salem was incorporated in 1856; Winston in 1859.

Winston developed rapidly as an industrial center and market. The year 1872 saw the first tobacco auction and the opening of the first tobacco factory. In 1885 the Chamber of Commerce of Winston and Salem was organized by far-sighted leaders who realized that together the two towns must build for the future. By the time of consolidation, Winston was already known for its textiles, hosiery, blankets, knit goods, tobacco products and tobacco market.

In 1913, by popular vote, Winston and Salem were consolidated as Winston-Salem, the "Twin City." The new city took as its motto "Urbs Condita Adiuvando," meaning "A City Founded Upon Cooperation." This motto puts into modern phraseology the old Moravian concept of "Unitas Fratum," "A Unity of Brethren."

Winston-Salem today is the leading industrial city of North Carolina and one of the South's leading industrial cities. The annual value of Forsyth County's manufactured products is over $1,000,000,000.

The best of the old and the best of the new blend to make a progressive city still marked by a deep religious atmosphere, a love for music and arts, and a zeal for broad educational development. As did their fathers of yesterday, far-sighted citizens of today build always for the greater city of tomorrow.

Old Salem, Inc., 614 S Main St., headquarters for the restoration of the quaint Moravian village was founded in 1766. Here may be seen a scale model of the village as it looked in the early days, and current exhibits.

Wachovia Museum, corners S. Main and Academy Streets, has on display a large collection of Salem Antiquities, and objects belonging to early Winston. A part of the collection is housed in the old Boys' School, built in 1794 and restored in 1954. Boys' School is still under its original tile roof.

Salem Tavern, 800 S. Main, erected in 1784, was the first brick building in Salem. George Washington visited the Tavern in 1791 during his Southern Tour. As a house museum, it now offers visitors a glimpse into one of the South's best known 18th Century inns.

Lick-Boner House, 512 S. Liberty St., 1787, was the first project of the eleven completed Old Salem, Inc., restorations in a long-range program. John Henry Boner, the North Carolina poet, was born in the house in 1845.

Home Moravian Church, S. Church St., erected in 1800, was the heart of the early Salem community, and is the center of the Moravian Church activities in the South. It is here that the opening scene of the Moravian early Easter morning service is held. This Easter Service, one of the most widely known religious services in America, has been held for 190 years, and attracts from 30 to 40 thousand visitors annually.

"God's Acre," or Moravian Graveyard, S. Church St., contains more than 3,000 graves, all having similar, flat markers to symbolize the brotherhood and equality of man. There are no family plots. The graveyard has been used by Moravian congregations in the city since 1771, and is the closing scene of the Moravian Easter Service, which attracts thousands of visitors from across the country.

Brothers' House, 600-04 South Main St., 1769 and 1786, is the second oldest house still standing in Salem. It was here that the young boys of the community went to learn their trades. The building is now the Moravian Church Home.

Sister's House, Salem Square, 1786, housed the single sisters of early Salem. The house is now used as a dormitory for Salem College.

John Vogler House, 700 S. Main Street, house was built in 1819 by a silversmith and clockmaker, is a refinement of the traditional architecture of 18th Century mid-European domestic architecture which was used in early Salem. It is now a third exhibit building of Old Salem, Inc., the restoration organization.

"Fourth House," 450 S. Main St., erected in 1767, is the oldest building still standing in Salem. It was the home of an early saddlemaker. The house was restored in 1940 by the Forsyth County Committee of Colonial Dames, and is now rented.

Belo House, 455 S. Main Street, handsome antebellum mansion with Corinthian columns and elaborate iron grille, was erected by Edward Belo in 1849. Belo conducted a store on the main floor of the building, and his dwelling was on the second story. The building was at one time used as an Inn. Now it belongs to the Moravian Church and is an apartment house for ladies.

Salem College and Academy, Salem Square, is one of the first Girls' Schools in the South, and is oldest in continuous operation. Established by the Moravians as a day school in 1772, it became a boarding school in 1802. The college buildings, on a 50-acre campus, are designed in the characteristic mid-European domestic architecture, prevalent in Salem.

Salem Square Market-Firehouse, 1803, has been reconstructed on its original foundations. The Square has been restored to early appearance with white clapboard fence.

Hagan House, 1816, 230 S. Liberty Street, was the home of Francis Fries Hagan.

Christoph Vogler House, 1797, 708 S. Main Street, home of the village gunsmith, was the first brick house in the village.

Anna Catharina House, behind John Vogler House, 1772, was the home of Anna Catharina Ernst, heroine of the historical novel "Road to Salem."

Community Store, 1775, 626 S. Main Street, was the trading center of the village and home of the storekeeper. It is now restored and open to the public with items for sale.

In the Downtown District

City Hall, N. Main St., is built on the original dividing line between Winston and Salem.

Forsyth County Courthouse is on the Courthouse Square in the center of the downtown district.

Reynolds Office Building, N. Main at 4th St., was North Carolina's tallest office building until the Wachovia Building was built.

The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., in the vicinity of Church and 5th Streets, is open to visitors for guided tours. Here one may see Camel, Salem, and Winston cigarettes and Prince Albert Smoking tobacco being produced: the products are made only in Winston-Salem. Information about the guided tours may be obtained at the Reynolds Office Building. The Whitaker Park plant, also open for tours, is the most modern cigarette plant in the world.

The tobacco warehouses, in the vicinity north of the Post Office on 33rd Street between Oak and Patterson streets, are open from late September through December. Here the chant of the auctioneer, the pungent smell of ripe tobacco, and the steady hum of warehouse activity combine to provide one of America's most colorful marketing scenes.

P. H. Hanes Knitting Co., Division of Hanes Corporations, N. Main St., is the world's largest manufacturer of men's and boys' knit underwear.

All the equipment needed to prepare a meal for forth people in eighteenth century style can be seen in the kitchen of the Salem Tavern (1784). The Tavern is an Old Salem exhibit building open daily.

Winston-Salem State College was founded in 1892 as Slater Industrial Academy with one room, 25 students and one teacher. Today the school has 62 acres and approximately 1,000 students. The college is a four-year co-educational school for Negroes, and offers the B. S. degree in education for elementary teachers and in nursing.

Winston-Salem Gallery of Fine Arts, regional in scope, works exhibited are selected from those submitted by professional artists of the five-state region. All works of art (except occasional specialty arranged exhibitions) are for sale.

James Gordon Hanes Community Center

The James Gordon Hanes Community Center, on the corner of Coliseum Drive and North Cherry Street, was completed in October of 1958 at a cost of over $1,000,000. This money was raised from the citizens of the community.

The building houses the Greater Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, the United Fund of Forsyth County and the Arts Council.

The Arts Council Center in the building houses rehearsal rooms, a Little Theatre (seats 420), arts and crafts workshop, art gallery, and offices for arts groups in the city and represents a unique solution to the problem of supporting community arts groups. The Arts Council, oldest in the country, is the coordinating organization for local arts activities and groups.

MAIN HALL, SALEM COLLEGE: Winston-Salem, N. C.

One of the oldest girls' colleges in the United States; founded in 1771. This institution during its long period of existence has never closed its doors except for the usual vacation periods. Students from all sections of the country and from some foreign countries as well, matriculate at this institution. Some of the country's famous women have been enrolled as students. When the Moravians settled in Salem, they first built a place of worship, a school and then their homes.

The Edgcombe Room is one of fifteen rooms and four galleries in the Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts. The Museum, located in Old Salem, contains a distinctive collection of early Southern Antiquities and arts. This particular room is from a small mid-eighteenth century planter's home in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, and retains its original red painted wainscott and cornice with chimney piece of blue. The Chippendale chairs and side table of walnut are from Virginia. Note the decorative inlay on the spice cabinet, echoing the design on the chimney piece; it is probably of eastern North Carolina origin, as is the cellaret under the window. The mahogany dining table is an interesting attempt at sophistication by a cabinetmaker working in the back country of North Carolina.

Industry and Business

Winston-Salem is built on a sound economic foundation. Industries, many of which were established by Winston-Salem pioneers, number approximately 230. Industrial and agricultural developments are inter-dependent, giving stability and balanced growth.

The Salem Boys' School building, erected in 1794, and a modern annex today house the Wachovia Museum collection of local antiques. Adding interest to the exhibits of early household utensils, guns, farm equipment, toys, church relics, craftsmen's tools and products, and Indian artifacts is the school building itself, an outstanding example of Moravian ornamental brickwork. It still bears its original tile roof.

Industrial Development

Tobacco—Tobacco flows into Winston-Salem from the farms of the entire Piedmont area. Here it is manufactured into tobacco products which are distributed to every country in the world. Winston-Salem is the world's largest tobacco manufacturing center, producing cigarettes, smoking and chewing tobacco, and snuff. Winston-Salem also is one of the world's largest bright-leaf tobacco markets.

Hosiery—The city is the home of the world's largest circular-knit hosiery mill. Besides the great mill and a large plant processing nylon yarn, there are seven other plants in the Winston-Salem vicinity that process or make hosiery.

Knit Underwear—The largest manufacturer of men's and boys' knit underwear in the world is located in Winston-Salem.

Telephones, radar, and other electronic equipment—Western Electric manufactures radar for government, test equipment, and other electronic devices and components.

Furniture—Twenty-six furniture plants, manufacturing all types of furniture, are located in the Winston-Salem vicinity.

Others—The city has other plants manufacturing a large variety of products including boxes and cartons, batteries, air-conditioning and industrial machinery, specialized chemical materials and medicines, awnings, beddings and mattresses, paint, toys and textiles. An ample complement of services joins these industries to give a well-balanced and diversified economy.

Retail and Wholesale Trade

The retail trading area covers several Piedmont counties. The wholesale trading area extends over a 150-mile radius. 1 1/8 million people live within 50 miles of Winston-Salem.

Transportation

Aviation—Located 2.5 miles from the business district, Smith Reynolds Airport is served by Piedmont Airlines. Greensboro-High Point-Winston-Salem Airport, 15 miles from downtown is served by three airlines.

Motor Vehicles—Motor vehicles registered for 1965 in the Winston-Salem area were 101,795. Three coach companies give inter-city bus service: Winston-Salem is the Southern division headquarters for the Greyhound Lines. Three local bus lines and two taxicab companies handle urban traffic.

Highways—Eleven principal highways lead to and from Winston-Salem.

In January, 1960, the Interstate Expressway was completed. This expressway runs east-west through the city using routes U. S. 421 and 158 and is part of Interstate 40. A North-South Expressway (U. S. 52) opened in 1964.

Railways—Three railways operate in Winston-Salem. The city generates such a great amount of freight that more than 35 railways maintain Winston-Salem offices.

Banking Institutions

Five banking institutions include four commercial banks and one industrial bank. One of the commercial banks serves as home office of the largest bank in the Southeast.

Community Life

Winston-Salem was built by a home-loving, civic-minded people. Thus, through the years, great institutions have grown steadily adding their influence and stability to the making of a wholesome, well-rounded community life. Winston-Salem is known for its many churches, good schools, and beautiful homes.

Churches and Religious Denominations

Often called the city of churches, Winston-Salem has more than 220 churches representing some twenty denominations. Every section of the city is graced with lovely church buildings in attractive grounds, ranging from the old Home Moravian Church to the large, modern Baptist and Methodist structures called the finest in the South.

Churches numbered according to denomination include Baptist 79; Catholic 4; Christian Science 1; Church of Christ 8; Episcopal 3; Greek Orthodox 1; Jewish 2; Lutheran 4; Methodist 31; Moravian 21; Presbyterian 12 and others 58.

Schools and Colleges

Also called the city of good schools, Winston-Salem long ago recognized the need for adequate education. A consolidated City-County School System serves the area. The buildings are attractive, well-equipped, and set in spacious grounds providing adequate facilities. New elementary and junior high schools have been built.

Salem Academy is a day and boarding school for girls. There are two business colleges, one private elementary school, two parochial schools, and kindergartens, music schools and trade schools.

Four colleges are located in the city: Salem College, one of the nation's oldest leading four-year colleges for women, founded in 1772; Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest College, four-year medical school; Winston-Salem State College, co-educational Negro Institution; and Wake Forest College, a 123-year old, four-year college for men and women. The college is located in a new, modern plant housing 2,500 students. It moved to its new campus during the summer of 1956.

The North Carolina School of the Performing Arts opened in September, 1965, on the campus of the former Gray High School. It provides instruction in dance, music and drama for 400 talented high school and college students from North Carolina and many other States.

City Government

Winston-Salem has the council-manager type of city government. The city is incorporated, operating at present upon a charter codified and revised in 1927, with amendments made since. The city is divided into eight wards, with one alderman being elected biennially from each ward, making the governing body of the city a board of aldermen of eight plus the mayor. The Board of Alderman appoints the city manager.

Exterior scene of the new Forsyth Memorial Hospital in Winston-Salem. The facility has 542 beds.

County Government

Five commissioners, elected for overlapping terms make up a board of commissioners who serve as the governing body of Forsyth County.

The county is divided into twelve townships and 50 precincts. All qualified voters of North Carolina who have lived in North Carolina for one year and in any voting precinct of Forsyth County for four months are eligible to vote in county elections.

Recreational Facilities

Twenty-six parks and playgrounds, with a total of 536 acres, have athletic fields, picnic areas, and special amusement features. The largest park is Reynolds, one of the South's finest municipal recreational centers. The city has an average of more than ten acres of playground for each public school.

Numerous amateur and "semi-pro" baseball, basketball and softball teams have regular schedules of games. Eight eighteen-hole golf courses and one 27-hole course, and a mild climate make golf a year-around sport. Nine swimming pools and five motion-picture theatres are located in the city. The R. J. Reynolds Memorial Auditorium and the Bowman Gray Stadium are available for special events. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. provide recreational programs and the City Recreation Department conducts extensive supervised activities.

The $1,250,000 Memorial Coliseum seats 8,000 and brings many attractions to the city. The Coliseum accommodates ice sports, agricultural shows, and conventions.

Winston-Salem is a gateway to both mountain and seashore resorts. Some of the loveliest Carolina beaches lie 225 to 250 miles east and south, while cool mountain retreats are about sixty miles west. The famed Blue Ridge Parkway, leading to Shenandoah National Park and Great Smoky Mountains National Park, is some sixty miles northwest.

Cultural Opportunities

Winston-Salem has many cultural activities and organizations. The colleges of the community provide numerous concerts and lectures throughout the year. The member organizations of the Arts Council provide series and individual programs and courses. These members are Arts and Crafts Association, American Guild of Organists, Associated Artists, Children's Theatre Board, Civic Music Association, Film Friends, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Junior League, Junior Woman's Club, Singer's Guild, Chamber Music Society, Civic Ballet, Woman's Club, SPEBS, Dance Forum, Gallery of Fine Arts, Little Theatre and Winston-Salem Symphony Association. The local symphony has a full-time paid conductor.

Public Library of Winston-Salem and Forsyth County has over 200,000 volumes.

Hospitals and Medical Facilities

Three first-class hospitals, Forsyth Memorial, Kate Bitting Reynolds Memorial, and North Carolina Baptist, have a total of 1,218 beds. There are three convalescent homes in the city, the City-County Health Clinic, and the full-time City and County Health Department with splendid records in disease-prevention.

CAUTION

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory Canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.

PLEASE! Do Not Lend Your CITY DIRECTORY

IT COSTS YOU MONEY—Every Time it Is Loaned

The practice of lending your City Directory, in a great measure, is responsible for the increasing cost of Directory Service.

The reason is:—

There is a definite cost involved in the making of the DIRECTORY of Your City.

THIS COST MUST BE ABSORBED BY THE SUBSCRIBERS—BE THEY ONE—OR BE THEY 1000.

If there were but ONE SUBSCRIBER to the CITY DIRECTORY—THE ONE SUBSCRIBER would of necessity have to absorb THE WHOLE COST.

If there were 100 SUBSCRIBERS—each one would have to absorb 1/100 PART OF THE WHOLE COST.

If there were 1000 SUBSCRIBERS—each one would have to absorb 1/1000 PART OF THE WHOLE COST.

From which it is obvious that the GREATER the number of subscribers—the LESSER the cost to each.

And

It is also obvious that the LESSER the number of subscribers—the GREATER the cost to each.

Every time you loan your City Directory the LESS NECESSITY THERE IS FOR THE BORROWER TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE SERVICE.

MORE BORROWERS result in FEWER SUBSCRIBERS which means INCREASED COST.

"r" AND "h"

Two important symbols are used in your City Directory. The symbol "r," before an address stands for "Resident." That person resides at that address but is not the head of the family or family head. The symbol "h" stands for "Householder"—the person in whose name the home is occupied.

CASHIERS! TELLERS! — CLERKS! —

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory?

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

Out of Sight -- Out of Mind Out of Business

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.

OUT OF SIGHT!
OUT OF MIND!
OUT OF BUSINESS!

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

THE CITY DIRECTORY IS THE NATURAL

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory?

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

CASHIERS! TELLERS!
— CLERKS! —

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory?

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

CAUTION

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory Canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.

WHY A BUYERS' GUIDE?

IT IS CUSTOMARY TO INCLUDE A BUYERS' GUIDE IN THE CITY DIRECTORY BECAUSE:

It gives business firms the opportunity to elaborate upon a description of their products and services impossible in the limited space of regular Alphabetical and Classified listings.

★ The Buyers' Guide is a necessary supplement to the regular listings; It is good City Directory Information . . . EXTENDED ★

CASHIERS! TELLERS! CLERKS!

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory?

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."
